

Level 4 Hospitality Manager Apprenticeship

Course Overview

Hospitality Managers work across a range of organisations, including restaurants, cafes, hotels, banqueting venues and more, where they generally specialise in a particular area. You will have a high level of responsibility and will be accountable for fulfilling your businesses' objectives and visions.

Throughout this apprenticeship, you will learn about managing finances, how to monitor levels of customer service, customer relations skills, how to develop new business improvement ideas and how to work out what resources are required during quiet and busy times.

Apprenticeships give you the opportunity to work for a real employer, earn a real salary and gain a real qualification whilst gaining valuable workplace skills and experience. If you are aged 16 or above, are driven to succeed in a particular industry and are willing to commit yourself to training and study, then an Apprenticeship could be the right career move for you.

What You Will Study

The apprentice will learn, work, earn and achieve a qualification all at the same time.

To achieve the apprenticeship they will complete the following:

- An industry designed and recognised apprenticeship
- End Point Assessment (On Demand Test, Business Project and Professional Discussion)

The apprentice will work towards the following Functional Skills:

- Mathematics up to Level 2
- English up to Level 2

Learners who have already achieved GCSEs (9-4/A*-C) in Maths and English may be exempt from Functional Skills.

The apprenticeship is work based, however the apprentice may be required to attend College for functional skills if needed.
